Step 11 : Chose basic plan for training purposes.

The screenshot shows the AWS sign-up page. The browser address bar displays the URL: `portal.aws.amazon.com/billing/signup?redirect=success&x-awsbc-xrf-token=UUswWnlRemRwWUvM0lYeWQ3YlgwRHlCeEwzVTIL...`. The page features the AWS logo at the top. Below it, the heading "Sign up for AWS" is followed by "Select a support plan". A subtext reads: "Choose a support plan for your business or personal account. Compare plans and pricing examples. You can change your plan anytime in the AWS Management Console." Three support plans are presented in cards:

- Basic support - Free (Selected):
  - Recommended for new users just getting started with AWS
  - 24x7 self-service access to AWS resources
  - For account and billing issues only
  - Access to Personal Health Dashboard & Trusted Advisor
- Developer support - From $29/month:
  - Recommended for developers experimenting with AWS
  - Email access to AWS Support during business hours
  - 12 (business)-hour response times
- Business support - From $100/month:
  - Recommended for running production workloads on AWS
  - 24x7 tech support via email, phone, and chat
  - 1-hour response times
  - Full set of Trusted Advisor best-practice recommendations

Each plan card includes an icon: a document with a slash for Basic, a laptop with code for Developer, and a briefcase for Business. At the bottom, there is a link "Need Enterprise level support?" with a corresponding icon.

Step 12: Registration is completed, and your account will be activated in next 24 hours.

The screenshot shows the AWS "Congratulations" page. The browser address bar displays the same URL as the previous step. The page features the AWS logo at the top. Below it is a rocket icon launching from a cloud. The heading "Congratulations" is followed by the text: "Thank you for signing up for AWS. We are activating your account, which should only take a few minutes. You will receive an email when this is complete." Below this text is an orange button labeled "Go to the AWS Management Console". At the bottom, there is a link: "Sign up for another account or contact sales." The page is decorated with stylized building icons at the bottom.
